INTRODUCTION

As our independent country has started to have diplomatic relationships with other independent states, a great demand of knowing foreign languages rose. Our respectful President I.A. Karimov's resolution on learning foreign languages harder and wider, especially the English language which has already become the world language in communication and diplomacy makes us study new methods of teaching and learning this language.

As we know, On December 10, 2012 the first President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov signed a decree "On measures to further improve foreign language learning system". The analysis of the current system of organizing language learning shows that learning standards, curricula and textbooks do not fully meet the current requirements, particularly in the use of advanced information and media technologies. Education is mainly conducted in traditional methods. Further development of a variety of foreign languages learning at all levels of education; improving skills of teachers and provision of modern teaching materials are required.

According to the decree, starting from 2013/2014 school year foreign languages, mainly English, gradually throughout the country will be taught from the first year of schooling in the form of lesson-games and speaking games, continuing to learning the alphabet, reading and spelling in the second year. Also it is envisaged that university modules, especially in technical and international areas, will be offered in English and other foreign languages at higher education institutions. As we are future teachers it is compulsory for us to learn new teaching methods to make contribution to develop learners' outlook by using new technologies.

Annotation of the work (in English)

The following project deals with one of the most essential matters in modern methodology: that is communicative issues for people who are learning a foreign language as English for Specific Purpose.

Today communication plays an essential role in teaching and learning process. Students may be able to use all their skills only if they manage to use language in practice; that is communication and Specific Purpose. It should serve for various targets. Some communicative-based techniques may assist in constructing learners' creative skills. The main target of the work is to focus on techniques to develop creative abilities of ESP students.

Mazkur loyiha ishining asosiy maqsadi talabalarning ijodiylik, yaratuvchanlik qobiliyatlarini rivojlantirishda kommunikasiyaga asoslangan Mutaxassislikka yo'naltirilgan ingliz tili lug'atlardan foydalanishni ham nazariy ham amaliy jihatdan o'rganish hisoblanadi. Ma'lumki, bugungi zamonaviy metodologiyada xorijiy til o'rganuvchilarining so'zlash qobiliyatlarini shakllantirish, o'stirish asosiy vazifa hisoblanadi. Bu maqsadni amalga oshirish uchun esa turli texnikalardan samarali foydalanish zarurdir. Mazkur loyiha ishi aynan kommunikasiyaga asoslangan Mutaxassislikka yo'naltirilgan lug'atlarni o'qitish yordamida talabalarning kreativlik qobiliyatlarini rivojlantirish yo'llarini ko'rsatib beradi.

Annotation of the work (in Russian)

Современная методология требует от преподавателей иностранных языков внедрить все языковые навыки в одном уроке. Умение говорить, слушать и понять аутентичный материал на английском языке, также навыки чтения, письменной речи должны обучаться в интегрированной форме; раз имеется, это может быть трудный процесс для преподавателя и обучающихся. Но с

Actuality of the work

The following theme is actual to study in modern methodology of Uzbekistan. As we have realized that creativity is an essential ability without which it is impossible to master a foreign language, to communicate in it, to have spoken or written productions. It is actual to use communicative-based techniques in classes of ESP students as well, as communication has already become the most essential foreign language skill to study. Considering these, we can claim that the theme is really actual to learn both theoretically and practically in modern methodology teaching Vocabulary for ESP students.

The object and subject of the work

The object of the work is creative abilities of learners, and the subject is communicative-based techniques used in foreign language teaching and learning process.

Aim and tasks of the work

The main aim of the following work is to find out ways to use communicative-based techniques in order to develop ESP students' creative abilities. The following tasks are set in front of the work as well:

- To show special peculiar features of communicative-based techniques;
- To work at description of various students' abilities including creativity;
- To implement communicative-based techniques in practice;
- To work out ways how to encourage students to use their creative abilities;

I have used several books as the main sources to work with the following theme: firstly, I can state that several methodological books were used in this work. Jeremy Harmer's methodological books in a series of "How to teach" were very useful.

Theoretical and practical value of the work

Theoretical importance of the following work can be: it can serve as a good source of information for all teachers looking for some new techniques based on communication. Theoretical data related to the theme is given in the work. Practical value of the work is that some communicative-based techniques are implemented lively and that can be very helpful for ESP students, teachers and others. In short words, the work can really be a good source of information in
